Monday, October 13 "It's all a total fantasy," Devin Macy says as we shove our way down the crowded school hallway, making the long trek to the gym after last bell. Devin's my best friend and that's what she thinks about internet relationships. She's not much on fantasy—or relationships. Not because she's not beautiful....

Exposed by Susan Vaught

A too-obvious cautionary tale about Internet predators. Chan is determined to put her past behind her, and she believes the best way to do that is to find a new boyfriend, preferably someone sensitive, cute and, if possible, far away. Still reeling from a bad breakup, she wants nothing more than someone nice. A hard-nosed coach, an overbearing mother, an overly permissive father and a sister ...

Reading Exposed has simply confirmed this for me. Author, Susan Vaught has written an absolutely scary and unfortunately all too realistic book about a young girl who is confused, living in a dysfunctional family and is desperate for some love and attention - desperate to be "understood" and desperate for total and unconditional acceptance - I have basically described almost every teenager out there.
