Nomads Of Gor 4 John

Although the first 3 books are good story-telling and do a good job of introducing the world of Gor, it is with this 4th book, Nomads, that the series really takes off. Norman does an excellent job at bringing out the cultural identity of a specific group of people and bringing them to life. This book is just plain fun to read.

If you only read 1 Gor book, Nomads of Gor should be the one. It shows the very best of John Norman's writing ability. The Wagon People are epic world building, and you will feel like you have been a part of them all of your life. You understand their honor, their customs, and their games. You hurt with them, and you cheer for the "wily Tuchuks."
